

50 CLASSES SLATED AT MARYMOUNT

A program of 50 classes has been finalized for the extension division at Marymount College, ranging from art to rapid reading, for the fall term which opens on Sept. 23 on the Palos Verdes Estates campus.

Art classes will include oil painting, interior design, survey of oriental art, beginning drawing and painting, photography, introduction to art history and art for children.

Principles of accounting, personnel management and principles of economics comprise business administration classes. A Saturday chemistry class and laboratory in quantitative analysis runs from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. for three fully accredited units.

Five selected classes in English are the Victorian era, masterpieces of English, Romantic Age, children's literature and Shakespeare, while journalism students study introduction to journalism and communication arts.

Always popular are music department groups such as the adult chorus and the chamber music orchestra, along with individually scheduled study in piano and voice. Among others are the Renaissance music and history of opera.

Numerous classes in French, Spanish, Italian and Russian are on the roster, including conversation groups, 19th Century Spanish literature and survey of Spanish literature of the 18th century.

For children, Saturday morning classes are listed in art, French, Spanish and a creative drama workshop.

Also planned are classes in mathematics, history, psychology, theology and theatre arts. Additional subjects will be taught if there is sufficient demand, according to Mother du Sacre Coeur, president of Marymount College.

Avalon Blvd. Improvement Work Starts

Improvement of Avalon Blvd. south of Carson St. and of Carson west of Avalon is progressing as scheduled and work will continue during this week, Supervisor Kenneth Hahn reports.

Pavement on the west side of Avalon and the south side of Carson is being extended to join newly constructed curb and gutter.

A catch basin is being remodeled and drainage pipe will be extended at the southwest corner of the Avalon Blvd.-Carson St. intersection.

Hahn cited the project as a type of work performed by the county road department in cooperation with property owners who construct curb and gutter under county permit.

"Avalon and Carson presently carry a daily average of 28,000 vehicles through their intersection," Hahn noted.

The improvement is designed to improve the area's drainage, lower maintenance costs and add to the efficiency of this important intersection.

Alvin Grancell Wins Prize for Fishing Talk

Alvin Grancell's talk on "Albacore Fishing" won the best speech award, at the weekly meeting of the Torrance - Lomita Realtors Toastmasters No. 646. Bob Westerfield presided over the breakfast session.

John Kirk received the award in the topics contest, presided over by Alyce Keith.

Best critic award went to Guy Cooper, and general evaluator for the entire meeting was Barbara Marks.

The whitewash brush was won by Jo Berger. The club meets each Thursday at 8 a.m. at the International House of Pancakes, Carson at Hawthorne. Guests are welcome.
